THE RELATION OF BARNARD COLLEGE TO COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

According to the agreement made January 19, 1900, between the Trustees of Columbia College in the City of New York and Barnard College, for the purpose of incorporating Barnard College, a college for women, in the educational system of the University, it is provided:

That the President of the University shall be, ex-officio, President of Barnard College and a Trustee of Barnard College. He shall preside at the meetings of the Faculty of Barnard College and shall have general supervision and direction of the educational administration of such College as in the other schools of the University.

That the internal administration of Barnard College shall be conducted by a Dean, who shall be appointed by the President of the University, by and with the advice and consent of the Trustees of Barnard College. In the absence of the Dean, an Acting Dean may be appointed by the President.

That Barnard College shall be represented in the University Council of Columbia University by its Dean, who shall have the right to vote in the University Council upon all questions. The Faculty of Barnard College shall consist of the President, the Dean, and all the professors on the staff of the University who give instruction in Barnard College.

That Barnard College shall provide for and maintain such officers of instruction as may, from time to time, be agreed on. Such officers shall be nominated by the Dean of Barnard College, with the approval of the Trustees of Barnard College and of the President of the University, and shall be appointed and reappointed by the University according to its custom. Their standing shall be the same in all respects as that of other like officers in the University. For all services rendered in the University by officers so appointed an equivalent amount of service shall be rendered in Barnard College by other officers of the University of like grade, as may be determined from time to time, with the consent of the officers concerned, by the Dean of the College and the President of the University.

That members of the Faculty of Barnard College may be either men or women.

That on and after July 1, 1904, all of the undergraduate instruction for women shall be given separately in Barnard College. Barnard College will assume as rapidly as possible all of the instruction for women in the senior year, without regard to the time limit contained in this section, and undertakes to maintain every professorship established at its instance, so long as the services of the incumbent thereof or an equivalent therefor shall be rendered in Barnard College; and when Barnard College has adequately provided for its undergraduate work, it will, as its means allow, establish additional professorships in the University, upon foundations, providing for courses which shall be open to men and women, to the end that opportunities for higher education may be enlarged for both men and women.

That the University will accept women who have taken their first degree on the same terms as men, as students of the University, and as candidates for the degrees of Masters of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy under the Faculties of Philosophy, Political Science, and Pure Science, in such courses as have been or may be designated by these Faculties, with the consent of those delivering the courses, and will make suitable provision for the oversight of such women.

That the University will confer the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science upon any student of Barnard College who shall have satisfactorily fulfilled in Barnard College the requirements of the University Statutes for that degree. The courses in Barnard College leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science shall be determined and administered by its own Faculty, and all examinations for admission to Barnard College and in course shall be conducted under the authority of the Faculty of Barnard College. The diploma shall be signed by the President of the University and by the Dean of Barnard College. The degrees conferred upon the graduates of Barnard College shall be maintained at all times as of equal value with the corresponding degrees conferred upon the graduates of Columbia College. The equivalency of the two degrees shall be maintained in such manner as the University Council may prescribe.

That, so long as this agreement is in force, Barnard College shall grant no degrees. It shall retain the right to grant certificates to students not candidates for a degree, and it shall exercise all other corporate rights and powers which are not delegated to the University by this agreement. But this agreement shall not be deemed a surrender by Barnard College of any powers conferred upon it by charter.

That Barnard College shall retain its separate corporate organization, and that the Trustees of Barnard College shall continue to provide for the financial support thereof.

That the library of the University shall be open to all women students of the University and of Barnard College upon the same terms as to men.

The provision made at Teachers College for students of Barnard College that wish to avail themselves of the advantage of professional training is explained in detail on page 50.

GENERAL STATEMENT

Barnard College offers two distinct liberal courses of undergraduate instruction for women, each of four years' duration, but differing widely in aim and leading to different degrees.

Courses of Study

The literary course requires the study of Latin for entrance and also in college, embraces such general subjects as are deemed essential to a liberal education, requires a major subject equivalent to a three-hour course throughout three years, and leads to the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

The science course allows the substitution of scientific and advanced subjects in place of the entrance Latin, embraces such general courses as are considered essential to any liberal education, requires a major and two minor subjects in pure science amounting to seventy points of college work, and leads to the degree of Bachelor of Science.

A general two-years' course, not leading to a degree, is arranged to give the cultural basis in literature, languages, history, and natural science for work in certain professional schools of the University.

The University requires of all students attendance upon all stated academic exercises. Students who find that stated academic exercises are fixed for days set apart for religious observance by the church to which they belong, and who are prevented by conscientious scruples from performing their University duties on those days, are requested to make application to the appropriate University authority for equitable relief. It should be noted, however, that in case alternative opportunities for taking a given examination are statedly offered, as for instance the January, June, and September entrance examinations, such students are expected to present themselves on the day which is not set apart as a holy day. In other cases, candidates for admission should make application to the Chairman of the Committee on Admissions of Barnard College, and students already matriculated should apply to the Dean.

Academic Discipline

Under the Statutes all students are admitted subject to the disciplinary power of the University.

ADMISSION

Candidates are admitted by the Committee on Admissions under the following general regulations:

Except for reasons of weight, candidates for admission to the freshman class must be at least fifteen years of age at the time of matriculation and correspondingly older for admission to advanced standing. Every candidate must, before admission, present a certificate of good moral character from her last teacher, or from some properly qualified citizen.

ADMISSION TO THE FRESHMAN CLASS

Every candidate for admission to the freshman class is required at the entrance examinations to offer subjects amounting to fifteen (15) points. ## ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS

Examinations for admission to Barnard College are held each year in January, June, and September. In 1907 they will be held June 17-22 and September 16-23, and in 1908, January 20-27.

In June, 1907, the entrance examinations will be conducted by the College Entrance Examination Board, of which Columbia University is a member, at Barnard College and at a large number of widely distributed points. A list of these points will be published by the Board (Post-Office Sub-Station 84, New York, N. Y.) about March 1. Requests for examinations at particular points should reach the Secretary of the Board not later than February 1.

In September, 1907, and January, 1908, the entrance examinations of Barnard College, conducted by the Columbia University Committee on Entrance Examinations, will be held only at the College.

The regulations covering candidates who are prevented by religious scruples from presence at any given series of examinations may be found in the paragraph relating to Attendance on page 16.

Every candidate for examination is required to file an application.

For the examinations in June, 1907, the application must be filed with the Secretary of the College Entrance Examination Board, Post-Office Sub-Station 84, New York, N. Y. Applications for examination in the United States east of the Mississippi River (also at Minneapolis, St. Louis, and other points on the Mississippi River), must be filed on or before June 3. Applications for examination elsewhere in the United States or in Canada must be filed on or before May 27; and applications for examination at points outside of the United States and Canada must be filed on or before May 13. Requests for blank forms of application should be addressed to the Secretary of the Board.

A candidate for a competitive scholarship to be awarded on the basis of the June examinations must, in her application to the Secretary of the College Entrance Examination Board, mention the scholarship for which she is competing; in which case her answer books, after having been rated by the Board, will be transmitted to the Committee on Admissions of Barnard College.

For the examinations in September, 1907, and January, 1908, applications must be filed with the Registrar of Barnard College on or before September 9 and January 13, respectively. Requests for blank forms of application should be addressed to the Registrar of Barnard College.

Applications received later than the dates named above will be accepted where it is practicable to arrange for the examination of the candidates concerned, but only upon the payment of $5 in addition to the regular fee.

Every application for examination in June must be accompanied by a fee of $5 in the form of a postal order, express order, or draft on New York, to the order of the College Entrance Examination Board,<sup>1</sup> for all candidates examined at points in the United States and Canada, and $15 for all candidates examined at points outside of the United States and Canada.

Examination
Fee

Every application for examination in September must be accompanied either by a fee of $5 in the form of a postal order, express order, or draft on New York, to the order of Barnard College, by a receipt from the Bursar of Barnard College for an examination fee previously paid, or by the receipt issued by the Secretary of the College Entrance Examination Board for the June examinations immediately preceding. The latter will be accepted in either September or January but not in both; and a single fee paid to the University will cover only two consecutive series of examinations, namely January and September or September and January.

If a late application is accepted either by the College Entrance Examination Board, or by the College, a second fee of $5 must be paid.

In every case a candidate who has paid the examination fee will be furnished with a receipt. This receipt should be carefully preserved. It must be presented by the candidate to the Supervisor in charge of the examinations which she attends as evidence that she is entitled to be admitted to the same. No candidate will be admitted to the September or January examinations upon the receipt of the College Entrance Examination Board, unless that receipt bears the certification of the Registrar of Barnard College that the candidate's application for the examinations has been filed.

A candidate may present herself at any of the scheduled series of examinations subject to the following restrictions:

(1) She may not count more than four series of examinations except by special consent of the Committee on Admissions of Barnard College.

(2) At the first and second series credit will be given only for such subjects or lettered (or numbered) parts of a subject, as are approved by her principal instructor.

(3) The results of an examination shall stand to her credit for twenty-eight months, but no longer.

Candidates taking the examinations must report to the Supervisor, Schedule of in the examination room, fifteen minutes in advance Examinations of the first examination which they are to attend.

The Committee on Admissions will report to the Dean as soon as practicable after the conclusion of each series of the entrance examinations the names of those candidates who may be admitted with or without conditions and of those who must present themselves for re-examination at a later examination period.

Barnard College accepts, in lieu of its entrance examinations, no credentials of any sort except the Regents' Academic Diploma<sup>1</sup> and the certificates of approved colleges, and these only for the subjects which they specifically cover. Certificates of the preparatory or high-school departments of universities and colleges are not accepted.

Candidates must take the regular entrance examinations in the subjects in which their certificates are not deemed adequate.

All certificates so offered must be in the hands of the Barnard College Committee on Admissions at least two weeks before the first day of the entrance examinations.

A student may be admitted to the freshman class on probation when the total number of points received by her in the entrance examinations amounts to eleven (11) out of the total required fifteen (15) points; but general deficiency in any one of the prescribed subjects will be regarded as disqualifying a candidate for admission.

<sup>1</sup> The credit to be given for the several counts of the Regents' Academic Diploma is determined by the Committee on Admissions. For 1907-08 every Regents' Academic Diploma is considered to cover the entrance requirement in English. No Regents' Academic Diploma will be accepted in lieu of the entrance examination in French or in German unless it covers the complete two-years' high-school course in these languages as recognized by the Regents. To be accepted in lieu of all parts of the examination in Latin or in Greek, a Regents' Academic Diploma must specifically cover, among other things, sight-reading and prose composition. In the case of the natural sciences a Regents' Academic Diploma will not be accepted for the required laboratory work. No diploma granted more than two (2) years before the applicant presents herself for matriculation will be accepted. No form of Regents' certificates other than the Academic Diploma will be accepted in lieu of the examinations in any subject.

A student admitted conditionally or by certificate will be held under probation during the first half-year of residence. By Tuesday of the week preceding the Christmas holidays, each department in which students on probation attend shall make Probation to the Dean a special report of progress in the case of every such student. The Dean shall as soon as practicable after the mid-year examinations decide as to each student on probation, whether she shall be admitted to full standing, have her period of probation extended, or be dropped from the roll.

The mark C, B, or A, obtained in any subject at the end of the first half-year of residence, will be regarded as removing an entrance condition in that subject, unless the condition was incurred in a part of the subject not directly involved in the work of the college course. Every entrance condition that is not thus removed must be made good at the regular entrance examinations of the year following the student's admission.

ADMISSION TO ADVANCED STANDING

Candidates for admission to advanced standing, either upon the basis of certificates from other colleges or on examination, must make application in writing on blanks to be obtained from the Registrar. The application must be filed with the Chairman of the Barnard College Committee on Admissions at least one week before the first day of the September or January entrance examinations, and must be accompanied in every case by (1) official statements of the candidate's record in her various college studies, (2) letters or other evidence showing the opinion of her instructors in regard to her scholarship and character, (3) a letter of honorable dismissal from the college which she is leaving, and (4) a catalogue or announcement of the college that she leaves in which are plainly marked every requirement for admission and every course of instruction for which she has received credit.

Every candidate for admission to advanced standing must show that she has attained proficiency in the equivalent of

1. The requirements for admission to the freshman class.
2. All the prescribed studies already pursued by the class to which she seeks admission.
3. As many elective studies as she would have pursued if she had entered the class at the beginning of the freshman year.

She may be admitted notwithstanding deficiencies in some of these studies, but will not be recommended for a degree until she shall have brought all her studies up to the point required for that degree.

The credits granted in any subject to a student admitted with advanced standing may be withdrawn or diminished in amount, if, in pursuing such subject after admission to Barnard College, the student prove that the granting of the credits was wholly or in part unwarranted by her previous work.

No applicant may enter the senior class as a candidate for a degree after October 15 in any year, and no student will receive a degree who has resided less than two full half-years at Barnard College. (See also paragraph 11, page 48.)

Candidates for admission to the freshman class offering for entrance more than the required 15 points may be given credit toward a degree for this extra work, on a basis to be determined by the Committee on Admissions, provided that not more than 18 of the 124 points required for a degree are gained in this way.

ADMISSION AS SPECIAL STUDENTS

Candidates for admission as special students must make application in writing at least one week before the first day of the entrance examinations in September or in January on blanks to be obtained from the Registrar.

Special students in Barnard College are of two classes: non-matriculated and matriculated.

Non-matriculated special students must be women of mature age who wish to pursue chiefly advanced courses of special study. They may be admitted at the discretion of the Committee on Admissions without passing formal entrance examinations. They must furnish proof that they have at some time pursued the studies included in the matriculation examinations and must satisfy the requirements of the department that they desire to enter.

No courses taken by non-matriculated special students can at any time be counted by them toward a degree.

Matriculated special students are women who wish, without taking a degree, to make a serious study of some subject or group of subjects.

They must pass the regular examinations for admission to the freshman class and have full credit for fifteen (15) points of the entrance requirements. (See p. 17.) They may, therefore, in event of a change of plan, be credited with such of their courses as may coincide with the courses leading to a degree.

Except for reasons of weight, satisfactory to the Committee on Admissions, no one will be received as a special student who is less than eighteen years of age, or who has, within ten months of the time of her application, either been rejected or become deficient as a regular student.

Once admitted to the college, special students will be allowed to select their own courses of study subject to the general approval of the Dean and to the particular approval, for each course selected, of the head of the department in which the course is given.

Each student is required to pursue at a given time courses amounting to at least eight (8) points, unless excused by the Dean for reasons of special weight.

In the courses which they severally pursue all special students will be held to the observance of the same regulations as to attendance, examination, proficiency, and deficiency as regular students.

DEFINITIONS OF REQUIREMENTS<sup>1</sup>

Specimens of the question papers set by Columbia University may be obtained from the Registrar upon application. The question papers of the College Entrance Examination Board are published annually in book form by Ginn & Company, Boston, Mass.

For a more detailed statement of the requirements in botany and physiography or lists of suitable laboratory experiments in chemistry and physics the reader is referred to the pamphlet of the College Entrance Examination Board containing definitions of the requirements in each subject.

BOTANY (counting one point)

The candidate should have received training by means of the laboratory method in:

The structure and the more obvious features of the life history of at least ten types among the higher seed plants chosen from the more representative families (e. g., Gramineæ, Liliaceæ, Salicaceæ, Ranunculaceæ, Rosaceæ, Leguminosæ, Cruciferae, Solanaceæ, Labiatae, Compositae). In addition to these the following types are recommended among the remaining lower groups of plants: pine, Selaginella, a fern, a moss (Polytrichum or Funaria), a leafy hepatic, Marchantia, a mildew (Microsphaera), an agaric, Vaucheria, Spirogyra, and a protophyte (preferably Sphaerella).

Physiology. This work should cover the essential facts concerning irritability, photosynthesis, respiration, digestion, growth, and reproduction.

Ecology. The natural history of plants should receive considerable attention, and the behavior of plants toward environmental factors (especially light and moisture), dissemination, cross and close pollination, and the more important structural and physiological characteristics of plant formations (hydrophytes, halophytes, mesophytes, and xerophytes) should be included.

As evidence of proper laboratory training and of satisfactory work, a note-book must be submitted. (See Submission of Note-books, page 43.)

<sup>1</sup> The relative value of subjects is expressed in points according to the time for adequate preparation in them; a point in the sense here used represents a course of five (5) periods weekly throughout an academic year of the preparatory school.

CHEMISTRY (counting one point)

The candidate's preparation in chemistry should include:

- a. The study of a standard text-book, to the end that the pupil may gain a comprehensive and connected view of the most important facts and laws of elementary chemistry.
- b. Instruction by lecture-table demonstrations, to be used mainly as a basis for questioning upon the general principles involved in the pupil's laboratory investigations.
- c. Individual laboratory work, comprising at least forty exercises.

An indexed note-book of the experiments must be submitted. (See Submission of Note-books, page 43.)

The following outline includes only the indispensable things which must be studied in the class-room and laboratory. The material is, for the most part, common to all elementary text-books and laboratory manuals. The order of presentation will naturally be determined by each teacher for himself.

OUTLINE.—The chief physical and chemical characteristics, the preparation and the recognition of the following elements together with their principal compounds: oxygen, hydrogen, carbon, nitrogen, chlorine, bromine, iodine, fluorine, sulphur, phosphorus, silicon, potassium, sodium, calcium, magnesium, zinc, copper, mercury, silver, aluminum, lead, tin, iron, manganese, chromium.

More detailed study should be confined to the italicized elements (as such) and to a restricted list of compounds such as: water, hydrochloric acid, carbon-monoxide, carbon-dioxide, oxides of nitrogen, nitric acid, ammonia, sulphur-dioxide, sulphuric acid, hydrogen sulphide, sodium-hydroxide, ammonium-hydroxide.

Attention should be given to the atmosphere (constitution and relation to animal and vegetable life), flames, acids, bases, salts, oxidation and reduction, crystallization, combining proportions by weight and volume, calculations founded on these and Boyle's and Charles's laws, symbols and nomenclature, atomic theory, atomic weights, valency (in a very elementary way), nascent state, natural grouping of the elements, solution (solvents and solubility of gases and solids and liquids, saturation), strength of acids and bases, conservation and dissipation of energy, chemical energy, electrolysis. Chemical terms should be clearly understood, and the pupil should be able to illustrate and apply the ideas they embody. The theoretical topics are not intended to form separate subjects of study, but to be taught only so far as is necessary for the correlation and explanation of the experimental facts.

DRAWING (counting one point)

The candidate's preparation in drawing should include simple geometrical, plane, and solid figures, simple pieces of machinery, the drawing of simple pieces of architectural ornament (a Greek anthemion, a design of iron scrollwork, etc.), the copying of machinery details, or the copying of still life and simple plant forms, with a fair knowledge of perspective and light and shade as applied in freehand sketching. The candidate should be able to reproduce from a flat copy with enlargement or reduction of size.

Every candidate must present at the time of and as part of the examination in drawing a set of drawings executed during one year's course in a preparatory school and within a period of two years before the time of application for admission.

These drawings should be at least twenty in number and should display the proficiency of the student in the following points:

1. Ability to sketch freehand from dictation with reasonable accuracy and with fairly correct steady and clean lines any simple geometrical figure or combinations of figures, straight lines, squares, and circles, polygons, spirals, or the like.

2. Ability to sketch from the object with reasonable correctness of proportion, structure, and form, geometrical models, simple vases, simple details of machinery or common objects such as ordinary household furniture and utensils.

3. Ability to sketch from the copy, enlarging or reducing its dimensions, any simple object such as a globe valve, stop-cock, or any ordinary historical ornament such as an acanthus leaf, egg and dart ornament, anthemion, tile pattern, iron scrollwork, or the like.

Correctness of proportion and accuracy in the angles and curves and structural relations of the parts of every figure or object drawn are of the highest importance, and great care should be taken in laying out the drawings in the use of construction lines and in the drawing of general masses and contour before the details are begun.

A certain proportion of shade drawing from casts may be included, but they are not required and should not form the majority of the drawings submitted.

In case the candidate has not attended a systematic course of instruction as detailed above she may submit a corresponding set of freehand drawings. (See Submission of Note-books, page 43.)

ENGLISH

Elementary (counting three points)

No applicant will be accepted in English whose work is notably defective in point of spelling, grammar, idiom, punctuation, or division into paragraphs.

- a. Reading and Practice.—The form of examination will, usually be the writing of a paragraph or two on each of several topics, to be chosen by the candidate from a considerable number—perhaps ten or fifteen—set before her in the examination paper. The treatment of these topics is designed to show the candidate's power of clear and accurate expression, and will call for only a general knowledge of the substance of the books. In every case knowledge of the book will be regarded as less important than the ability to write good English. In place of a part or the whole of this test, the candidate may present an exercise book, properly certified by her instructor, containing compositions or other written work done in connection with the reading of the books, and prepared in accordance with a list of directions, to be obtained by addressing the Secretary of the University. (See Submission of Note-books, page 43.) In preparation for this part of the requirement, it is important that the candidate shall have been instructed in the fundamental principles of rhetoric.

Candidates intending to take this part of the examination should read the books prescribed for the year in which they propose to submit themselves for examination in this subject.

In 1907 and 1908 the books prescribed for this part of the examination are as follows:

Group VI (two to be selected). Coleridge's The Ancient Mariner; Scott's The Lady of the Lake; Byron's Mazeppa and The Prisoner of Chillon; Palgrave's Golden Treasury (First Series), Book IV, with especial attention to Wordsworth, Keats, and Shelley; Macaulay's Lays of Ancient Rome; Poe's Poems; Lowell's The Vision of Sir Launfal; Arnold's Sohrab and Rustum; Longfellow's The Courtship of Miles Standish; Tennyson's Gareth and Lynette, Launcelot and Elaine, and The Passing of Arthur; Browning's Cavalier Tunes, The Lost Leader, How They Brought the Good News from Ghent to Aix, Evelyn Hope, Home Thoughts from Abroad, Home Thoughts from the Sea, Incident of the French Camp, The Boys and the Angel, One Word More, Hervé Riel, Pheidippides.

- b. Study and Practice.—This part of the examination presupposes the thorough study of each of the works named below. The examination will be upon subject-matter, form, and structure. In addition, the candidate may be required to answer questions involving the essentials of English grammar, and questions on the leading facts in those periods of English literary history to which the prescribed works belong.

In connection with the reading and study of the required books, parallel or subsidiary reading should be encouraged, and a considerable amount of English poetry should be committed to memory. The essentials of English grammar should not be neglected in preparatory study.

The books prescribed for this part of the examination are as follows:

In 1907 and 1908: Shakspeare's Julius Cæsar; Milton's Lycidas, Comus, L'Allegro, and Il Penseroso; Burke's Speech on Conciliation with America; Macaulay's Essay on Addison and Life of Johnson.

In 1909, 1910, and 1911: Shakspeare's Macbeth; Milton's Lycidas, Comus, L'Allegro, and Il Penseroso; Burke's Speech on Conciliation with America, or Washington's Farewell Address and Webster's First Bunker Hill Oration; Macaulay's Life of Johnson, or Carlyle's Essay on Burns.

Advanced (counting one point)

The requirement in advanced English is the equivalent of English A1-A2, the course prescribed for freshmen. Candidates are examined in the following subjects:

1. English composition, with special attention to correctness of style and orderly arrangement of material. In preparation for this part of the examination, the student should gain a practical acquaintance with the principles of rhetoric as expounded in any good textbook.

2. English literature—the general history from the Anglo-Saxon period to the death of Tennyson, and selected works from the Elizabethan period to the present day. (A list of these works can be obtained on application to the Secretary of the University.)

In examination the candidate will be expected to answer questions on the history of English literature and to write short essays based on topics relating to the works prescribed. In addition, she must submit not less than ten essays of at least 500 words each. At least half, but not all of these essays, should be on topics chosen from the books prescribed. (See Submission of Note-books, page 43.)

a. Elementary (counting two points)

THE AIM OF THE INSTRUCTION.—At the end of the elementary course the pupil should be able to pronounce French accurately, to read at sight easy French prose, to put into French simple English sentences taken from the language of everyday life, or based upon a portion of the French text read, and to answer questions on the rudiments of the grammar, as defined below.

THE WORK TO BE DONE.—During the first year the work should comprise: (1) careful drill in pronunciation; (2) the rudiments of grammar, including the inflection of the regular and the more common irregular verbs, the plural of nouns, the inflection of adjectives, participles and pronouns; the use of personal pronouns, common adverbs, prepositions, and conjunctions; the order of words in the sentence, and the elementary rules of syntax; (3) abundant easy exercises, designed not only to fix in the memory the forms and principles of grammar, but also to cultivate readiness in the reproduction of natural forms of expression; (4) the reading of from 100 to 175 duodecimo pages of graduated texts, with constant practice in translating into French easy variations of the sentences read (the teacher giving the English), and in reproducing from memory sentences previously read; (5) writing French from dictation.

During the second year the work should comprise: (1) the reading of from 250 to 400 pages of easy modern prose in the form of stories, plays, or historical or biographical sketches; (2) constant practice, as in the previous year, in translating into French easy variations upon the texts read; (3) frequent abstracts, sometimes oral and sometimes written, of portions of the text already read; (4) writing French from dictation; (5) continued drill upon the rudiments of grammar, with constant application in the construction of sentences; (6) mastery of the forms and use of pronouns, pronominal adjectives, of all but the rare irregular verb forms, and of the simpler uses of the conditional and subjunctive.

Suitable texts for the second year are: About's Le roi des montagnes, Bruno's Le tour de la France, Daudet's easier short tales, La Bédoulière's La Mère Michel et son chat, Erckmann-Chatrian's stories, Foa's Contes biographiques and Le petit Robinson de Paris, Foncin's Le pays de France, Labiche and Martin's La poudre aux yeux and Le voyage de M. Perrichon, Legouvé and Labiche's La cigale chez les fourmis, Malbot's Sans famille, Mairét's La tâche du petit Pierre, Mérimée's Colomba, extracts from Michelet, Sarcey's Le siège de Paris, Verne's stories.

b. Intermediate (counting one point)

THE AIM OF THE INSTRUCTION.—At the end of the intermediate course the pupil should be able to read at sight ordinary French prose or simple poetry, to translate into French a connected passage of English based on the text read, and to answer questions involving a more thorough knowledge of syntax than is expected in the elementary course.

THE WORK TO BE DONE.—This should comprise the reading of from 400 to 600 pages of French of ordinary difficulty, a portion to be in the dramatic form; constant practice in giving French paraphrases, abstracts, or reproductions from memory of selected portions of the matter read; the study of a grammar of moderate completeness; writing from dictation.

Suitable texts are: About's stories, Augier and Sandeau's Le gendre de M. Poirier, Béranger's poems, Corneille's Le Cid and Horace, Coppée's poems, Daudet's La Belle-Nivernaise, La Brète's Mon oncle et mon curé, Madame de Sévigné's letters, Hugo's Hernani and La chute, Labiche's plays, Loti's Pêcheur d'Islande, Mignet's historical writings Molière's L'avare and Le bourgeois gentilhomme, Racine's Athalie, Andromaque, and Esther, George Sand's plays and stories, Sandeau's Mademoiselle de la Seiglière, Scribe's plays, Thierry's Récits des temps mérovingiens, Thiers's L'expédition de Bonaparte en Egypte, Vigny's La canne de jonc, Voltaire's historical writings.

GERMAN

a. Elementary (counting two points)

THE AIM OF THE INSTRUCTION.—At the end of the elementary course in German the pupil should be able to read at sight, and to translate, if called upon, by way of proving her ability to read, a passage of very easy dialogue or narrative prose, help being given upon unusual words and constructions, to put into German short English sentences taken from the language of everyday life or based upon the text given for translation, and to answer questions upon the rudiments of grammar, as defined below.

THE WORK TO BE DONE.—During the first year the work should comprise: (1) careful drill upon pronunciation; (2) the memorizing and frequent repetition of easy colloquial sentences; (3) drill upon the rudiments of grammar—that is, upon the inflection of the articles, of such nouns as belong to the language of everyday life, of adjectives, pronouns, weak verbs, and the more usual strong verbs, also upon the use of the more common prepositions, the simpler uses of the modal auxiliaries, and the elementary rules of syntax and word-order; (4) abundant easy exercises designed not only to fix in mind the forms and principles of grammar, but also to cultivate readiness in the reproduction of natural forms of expression; (5) the reading of from 75 to 100 pages of graduated texts from a reader, with constant practice in translating into German easy variations upon sentences selected from the reading lesson (the teacher giving the English), and in the reproduction from memory of sentences previously read.

During the second year the work should comprise: (1) the reading of from 150 to 200 pages of literature in the form of easy stories and plays; (2) accompanying practice, as before, in the translation into German of easy variations upon the matter read, and also in the off-hand reproduction, sometimes orally and sometimes in writing, of the substance of short and easy selected passages; (3) continued drill upon the rudiments of the grammar, directed to the ends of enabling the pupil, first, to use her knowledge with facility in the formation of sentences, and, secondly, to state her knowledge correctly in the technical language of grammar.

Stories suitable for the elementary course can be selected from the following list: Andersen's Märchen and Bilderbuch ohne Bilder; Arnold's Fritz auf Ferien; Baumbach's Die Nonna and Der Schwiegersohn; Gerstäcker's Germelshausen; Heyse's L'Arrabbiata, Das Mädchen von Treppi, and Anfang und Ende; Hillern's Höher als die Kirche; Jensen's Die braune Erica; Leander's Träumereien and Kleine Geschichten; Seidel's Märchen; Stökl's Unter dem Christbaum; Storm's Immensee and Geschichten aus der Tonne; Zschokke's Der zerbrochene Krug.

Among the shorter plays the best available are perhaps Benedix's Der Prozess, Der Weiberfeind, and Günstige Vorzeichen; Elz's Er ist nicht eifersüchtig; Wichert's An der Majorsecke; Wilhelmi's Einer muss heiraten. It is recommended, however, that not more than one of these plays be read. The narrative style should predominate. A good selection of reading matter for the second year would be Andersen's Märchen, or Bilderbuch, or Leander's Träumereien, to the extent of, say, forty pages. After that such a story as Das kalte Herz, or Der zerbrochene Krug; then Höher als die Kirche, or Immensee; next a good story by Heyse, Baumbach, or Seidel; lastly Der Prozess.

THE AIM OF THE INSTRUCTION.—At the end of the intermediate course the pupil should be able to read at sight German prose of ordinary difficulty, whether recent or classical; to put into German a connected passage of simple English, paraphrased from a given text in German; to answer any grammatical questions relating to usual forms and essential principles of the language, including syntax and word-formation; and to translate and explain (so far as explanation may be necessary) a passage of classical literature taken from some text previously studied.

THE WORK TO BE DONE.—The work should comprise, in addition to the elementary course, the reading of about 400 pages of moderately difficult prose and poetry, with constant practice in giving, sometimes orally and sometimes in writing, paraphrases, abstracts, or reproductions from memory of selected portions of the matter read; also grammatical drill upon the less usual strong verbs, the use of articles, cases, auxiliaries of all kinds, tenses and moods (with special reference to the infinitive and subjunctive), and likewise upon word-order and word-formation.

The intermediate course is supposed to be the elementary course, plus one year's work at the rate of not less than four recitations a week. Suitable reading matter for the third year can be selected from such works as the following: Ebner-Eschenbach's Die Freiherren von Gempferlein; Freytag's Die Journalisten and Bilder aus der deutschen Vergangenheit—for example, Karl der Grosse, Aus den Kreuzzügen, Doktor Luther, Aus dem Staat Friedrichs des Grossen; Fouqué's Undine; Gerstäcker's Irrefahrten; Goethe's Herrmann und Dorothea and Iphigenie; Heine's poems and Reisebilder; Hoffmann's Historische Erzählungen; Lessing's Minna von Barnhelm; Meyer's Gustav Adolfs Page; Moser's Der Bibliothekar; Riehl's Novellen—for example, Burg Neideck, Der Fluch der Schönheit, Der stumme Ratsherr, Das Spielmannskind; Rosegger's Waldheimat; Schiller's Der Neffe als Onkel, Der Geisterseher, Wilhelm Tell, Die Jungfrau von Orleans, Das Lied von der Glocke, Balladen; Scheffel's Der Trompeter von Säckingen; Uhland's poems; Wildenbruch's Das edle Blut.

a. i. Grammar.

The common forms, idioms, and constructions, and the general grammatical principles of Attic Greek prose.

ii. Elementary Prose Composition.

Translation into Greek of detached sentences to test the candidate's knowledge of grammatical constructions.

The examination in the two subjects immediately preceding will be based on the first two books of Xenophon's Anabasis.

Greek a. i. and ii. is considered a single, indivisible subject.

b. Xenophon.

The first four books of the Anabasis.

c. Homer.

The first three books of the Iliad (omitting II, 494-end) and the constructions, poetical forms, and prosody of Homer's Iliad.

f. Prose Composition.

Translation into Greek of continuous prose based on Xenophon and other Attic prose of similar difficulty.

g. Sight Translation of Prose.

Translation into English at sight, based on prose of no greater difficulty than Xenophon's Anabasis.

Advanced (counting one point)

Candidates offering Greek as an advanced subject must present the equivalent of the course known as Greek 3-4 (see page 72). In Homer, for which no equivalent will ordinarily be accepted, the minimum requirement will be 1600 lines in addition to the amount offered for the elementary examination. The candidate must also offer the eight orations of Lysias in Morgan's edition, or an equivalent amount of similar Greek, and in prose composition at least twenty exercises in the writing of connected narrative prose. The exercises in Part III of Allinson's Greek Prose Composition will show the grade of preparation demanded. Candidates applying for examination in this subject must designate the equivalents, if any, which they wish to offer.

HISTORY

Elementary (counting two points)

Candidates offering history as an elementary subject may present themselves for examination upon either of the following groups. They will not be permitted to offer both of these groups as elementary subjects.

First Group:

- a.* Ancient history, including a brief introductory study of the Oriental peoples and early mediæval history to the death of Charlemagne, with due reference to art, literature, and government.
- b.* Mediæval and modern history, from the death of Charlemagne to the present time, with due reference to the growth of the state-system.

Second Group:

- c.* English history, with due reference to social and political development.
- d.* American history, with the elements of civil government.

NOTE.—For preparation in either of these groups a course of study equivalent to at least three lessons a week for two years will be needful. On examination a candidate must show such general knowledge of each field offered as may be acquired from the study of an accurate text-book of not less than three hundred pages. Since, however, the examination will be so framed as to require comparison and the use of judgment rather than mere exercise of memory on the part of the pupil, it is recommended that the teacher prescribe a course of supplementary reading of not less than three hundred pages dealing with the more important periods and events in each of the historical fields offered. Geographical knowledge will be tested by requiring the location of places and movements on an outline map.

The requirement in advanced history is intended to be an equivalent for History A1-A2—the course prescribed in Barnard College (see page 73). The work done at school, therefore, should be substantially identical with that course, the nature of which is explained in a syllabus that may be obtained on application to the University Bookstore. Those candidates who have taken the examination in elementary history, and desire to offer history as an advanced subject, must present themselves for examination upon the historical fields included in that group which they did not offer as an elementary subject. For example, if a candidate offers the first group as the elementary subject, she must offer the second group as the advanced subject, and vice versa. The examination will presuppose superior ability on the part of the candidate in advanced history to understand the significance of historical events, movements, or tendencies, to discern similarities and contrasts, and to combine results. Especial care should be exercised, therefore, in the selection of the supplementary reading on the more important periods and events in each of the historical fields within the group.

As further evidence of proficiency, satisfactory written work must be presented in the form of a note-book, or bound collection of notes (see Submission of Note-books, p. 43), containing not less than five thousand words on each historical field offered, and must show practice in at least three of the following exercises:

- (a) Notes and digests of reading outside of the text-books.
- (b) Written recitations requiring the use of judgment, and the application to new questions of knowledge already gained.
- (c) Written parallels between historical characters, events, or periods.
- (d) Brief studies of topics limited in scope, prepared outside the class-room and illustrated by some reference to contemporary material.
- (e) Historical maps or charts showing explorations, migrations, conquests, territorial changes, or social phenomena.

regular verbs, the inflection of nouns, adjectives, and pronouns, and the elementary rules of syntax; (3) abundant exercises illustrating the principles of grammar; (4) the reading and accurate rendering into good English of from 100 to 175 duodecimo pages of graduated texts, with translation into Italian of easy variations of the sentences read; (5) writing Italian from dictation.

The test will not require ability to perform nor to read from printed music.

b. Harmony (counting one point)

The candidate should have acquired:

(1) The ability to harmonize, in four vocal parts, simple melodies of not fewer than eight measures, in soprano or in bass—these melodies will require a knowledge of triads and inversions, of diatonic seventh chords and inversions, in the major and minor modes; and of modulation, transient or complete, to nearly-related keys;

(2) Analytical knowledge of ninth chords, all non-harmonic tones, and altered chords (including augmented chords). [Students are encouraged to apply this knowledge in their harmonization.]

It is urgently recommended that systematic ear-training (as to interval, melody, and chord) be a part of the preparation for this examination. Simple exercises in harmonization at the pianoforte are recommended. The students will be expected to have a full knowledge of the rudiments of music, scales, intervals, and staff-notation, including the terms and expression-marks in common use.

PHYSICS

The candidate's preparation in physics should include:

- a. The study of a standard text-book supplemented by the use of many varied numerical problems, to the end that the pupil may gain a comprehensive and connected view of the most important facts and laws in elementary physics.
- b. Instruction by lecture-table demonstrations, to be used mainly as a basis for questioning upon the general principles involved in the pupil's laboratory investigations.
- c. Individual laboratory work, comprising at least thirty-five exercises distributed about as follows: mechanics 13, sound 3, heat 5, light 6, electricity 8. An indexed note-book of the experiments must be submitted. (See Submission of Note-books, page 43.)

Candidates offering physics as an advanced subject must have studied physics for a full year after satisfactorily completing the elementary requirement, and must present two note-books, the one being an outline of the classroom work and the other a record of laboratory experiments performed by the candidate. (See Submission of Note-books, page 43.) The classroom work must be devoted to a more thorough and extensive study of the subjects previously covered in a general way in its scope must correspond to the course known as Physics 11-12 (see page 80.)

The laboratory work must consist of at least thirty experiments on the subjects discussed in the classroom work. The experiments should be of a more advanced grade than those designed for the elementary requirement.

PHYSIOGRAPHY (counting one point)

Each division of the subject should receive approximately the same proportion of attention in the laboratory as in the classwork. It is suggested that the exercises be divided somewhat as follows: Earth as a Globe, 5; Ocean, 5; Atmosphere, 12; Land, 18. An index note-book containing the record of these exercises must be submitted. (See Submission of Note-books, page 43.)

SPANISH (counting two points)

THE AIM OF THE INSTRUCTION.—At the end of the course the pupil should be able to pronounce Spanish accurately, to read at sight easy Spanish prose, to put into Spanish simple English sentences taken from the language of everyday life, or based upon a portion of the Spanish text read, and to answer questions on the rudiments of the grammar, as defined below.

THE WORK TO BE DONE.—During the first year the work should comprise: (1) careful drill in pronunciation; (2) the rudiments of grammar, including the conjugation of the regular and the more common irregular verbs, the inflection of nouns, adjectives, and pronouns, and the elementary rules of syntax; (3) exercises containing illustrations of the principles of grammar; (4) the reading and accurate rendering into good English of from 100 to 175 duodecimo pages of graduated texts, with translation into Spanish of easy variations of the sentences read; (5) writing Spanish from dictation.

Suitable texts for the second year are: Valera's El pájaro verde; Alarcón's El final de Norma, El capitán Veneno; Valdès's José; [Galdós's Doña Perfecta; Marianela; Padre Isla's version of Gil Blas; Carrion and Aza's Zaragüeta.

ZOOLOGY (counting one point)

The following outline includes the principle of zoölogy which are indispensable to a general survey of the science. It is planned for a full year's course. It is not intended to indicate order of study of the topics—this must be left to the teacher and the text-book.

1. The general natural history—including general external structure in relation to adaptations, life histories, geographical range, relations to other plants and animals, and economic relations—of common vertebrates and invertebrates so far as representatives of these groups are obtainable in the locality where the course is given. The types suggested are a mammal, bird, lizard, snake, turtle, newt, frog, dog-fish or shark, bony fish, clam, snail, starfish, earthworm, planarian, hydra, sea-anemone, paramoecium. In the case of arthropods, pupils should become familiar with common crustaceans, spiders, myriapods, and insects representing at least five orders. Actual examination of common animals with reference to the above points should be supplemented by reading giving natural-history information.

It is not expected that there will be time for making extensive note-books on the natural-history work; rather will the work in this line take the form of laboratory demonstrations. So far as time permits, drawings and notes should be made. The note-book mentioned below should contain at least drawings on the external structure of four animals not studied under Section 3, preferably two insects, a mollusk, and a second vertebrate.

2. The classification of animals into phyla and leading classes (except the modern subdivisions of the worms) and the great characteristics of these groups. In the case of insects and vertebrates the characteristics of the prominent orders. The teaching of classification should be by practical work so as to train the pupil to recognize animals and to point out the chief taxonomic characteristics. The meaning of species, genera, and larger groups should be developed by constructive practical work with representatives of insect or vertebrate orders.

3. The general plan of external and internal structure, not the anatomical minutiae, of one vertebrate (preferably frog or fish) in general comparison with human body; an arthropod (preferably a decapod); an annelid (earthworm or Nereis); a coelenterate (hydroid, hydra or sea-anemone); a protozoön (aciliate, and amœba when possible). In place of any of above types not locally available there may be substituted a second vertebrate, an insect, a mollusk, or an echinoderm. Tissues, the study of which is recommended as optional,<sup>1</sup> should be examined first with the unaided eye, in such a structure as frog's leg, and then with a microscope demonstrate the relations of cells and intercellular substance in epithelium and cartilage; and, if possible, in other tissues. The functions of the chief tissues and their positions in the body of a vertebrate should be pointed out.

4. (a) The general physiology of above types, involving the essentials of digestion, absorption, circulation (respiration), cell-metabolism, secretion, excretion, and nervous functions. This should apply comparatively the essentials of elementary work in human physiology. Demonstrations and experiments, such as are suggested in high-school text-books on human physiology, should be introduced, or recalled if not previously well presented in elementary physiology, in connection with discussion of the chief functions. As far as practicably structure and function should be studied together.

(b) Comparison of the general life-processes in animals and plants (in connection with botany if zoölogy is first studied).

5. The very general features of a sexual reproduction of a protozoön (preferably Paramœcium); alteration of generations in hydroids; reproduction and regenerations of Hydra; the very general external features of embryological development in a fish or frog; and (optional) the general cellular nature (not centrosomes and the like) of germ-cells, fertilization and cell-division in developing eggs should, as far as possible, be demonstrated and briefly described. Also, the most interesting features of development should be pointed out in the case of other animals studied.

6. The prominent evidence of relationship, suggesting evolution, within such groups as the decapods, the insects, and the vertebrates should be demonstrated. A few facts indicating the struggle for existence, adaptation to environment, variations of individuals, and man's selective influence should be pointed out; but the factors of evolution and the discussion of its theories should not be attempted.

7. (Optional) Some leading facts regarding the epoch-making discoveries of biological history and the careers of such eminent naturalists as Darwin, Huxley, Pasteur, and Agassiz should be presented.

The above outline of a course in general zoölogy should be developed on the basis of a course of laboratory study guided by definite directions. This should be supplemented by the careful reading of at least one modern elementary text-book in general zoölogy. At least two thirds of the time should be devoted to the practical studies of the laboratory. If good nature-studies have not preceded the course in high-school zoölogy, pupils should be encouraged to do supplementary work in the line of natural history. A note-book with carefully labelled outline drawings of the chief structures studied anatomically (Section 3), and the drawings mentioned under natural history (Section 1), and with notes on demonstrations and in explanation of drawings, with dates and an index, must be submitted. It will be graded as one-third of the examination.

SUBMISSION OF NOTE-BOOKS, DRAWINGS, ETC.

All work submitted must be duly certified to in ink by the teacher in the following form:

I certify that this note-book is a true and original record of work actually performed by.....

Drawings should bear a similar certification, or, in case of work not done under instruction, should be accompanied by the candidate's own signed declaration.

All note-books, unless otherwise specified, should be submitted at the time of examination. Candidates desiring their return should apply after the June examinations to the Secretary of the College Entrance Examination Board; after the January and September examinations to the Secretary of the University.

English exercise books, submitted in lieu of examination, advanced English essays, or advanced history and advanced physics note-books should be sent to the Secretary of the University at least two weeks before the examinations begin. Within ten days the candidate will be informed whether or not the work submitted has been accepted. English exercise books will not be returned to the writers.

REGISTRATION AND ENROLMENT

No student is permitted to attend any academic exercise until she has complied with the regulations in regard to registration and payment of fees. A matriculated student is one who has Registration been accepted as a candidate for a degree by the properly constituted academic authorities. Students enrolled at Barnard College are not, necessarily, matriculated. Every student will be required, as a condition of admission, to furnish such personal information as the College may need for its records. The proper blank for this purpose will be provided by the Registrar's Office.

New students, at the date of registration, are required to file a statement of the courses which the Dean has authorized them to pursue. Students already in College are required to Enrolment give notice of their choice of elective courses for the for ensuing year to the Dean, on or before Wednesday, May Courses 15, 1907. Proper blanks for this purpose will be provided by the Registrar's Office.

Students should not confuse the filing of elective blanks with registration.

The office of the Registrar will be open for registration from Wednesday, September 18, to Tuesday, September 24, 1907, and on Friday, January 31, 1908. New students may register also on Wednesday, September 25, 1907, and on Saturday morning, February 1, 1908. Registration at a later date is permitted only to candidates who obtain the written consent of the Dean, satisfactory cause for the delay having been shown. Such permission, however, does not relieve the student from the payment of the fee of $5 for late registration.

Students who are prevented, through no fault of their own, from completing their registration in due time, should file a provisional registration-record on or before the last day of registration, if they wish to avoid the payment of this additional fee.

Credit for attendance will date from September 25, 1907, or from February 3, 1908. All students will be held strictly accountable for absences incurred owing to enrolment at a later date.

Every student who holds a scholarship or is receiving the benefit of free or reduced tuition must obtain from the Dean a certificate to that effect. This certificate must be handed to the Bursar at the time of registration.

Leave of The Dean may for reasons of weight grant a leave of Absence absence to a student in good standing.

An honorable discharge shall always be granted by the Dean to any student of good standing, over twenty-one years of age, who may Honorable desire to withdraw, and, with the written assent of her Dismissal parents or guardian, to a student under that age.

GENERAL STATEMENT REGARDING FEES AND THE REGULATIONS GOVERNING THEIR PAYMENT

All fees are payable in advance at the Bursar's Office. Every student who fails to register within the limits of time fixed by the regulations of the University shall be permitted to register only with the consent of the Dean, and by the payment of an additional fee of $5. Students who enter late are required to pay the full charge for tuition for the half-year in which they register.

Two stated examination-periods occur in each year, one at mid-year and one at the close of the academic year. All other examinations are special examinations for which a fee of $5 is charged. If a student is granted special examinations in a series of subjects under one permit from the Dean, a single fee shall cover them all.

The registration or matriculation fee must be paid at the time of entrance before an official record of a student's attendance can be noted. The annual fees for matriculated students are payable in equal instalments on or before the third Saturday of the academic year, and on or before the second Wednesday of the second half-year in each academic year.

Checks should be made payable to the order of Barnard College, and addressed to the office of the Bursar.

Students are requested in cases of withdrawal from the College during the academic year to notify the Registrar in writing without delay. No application for a return of fees can be considered unless such notice is given.

DORMITORY

Brooks Hall, the residence hall for Barnard College students, will open on Monday, September 23, 1907. This dormitory has been given anonymously to the trustees and stands on 116th Street opposite the Columbia University station of the Subway.

The charge for board is $225, and that for rent of rooms from $140 upward, according to the situation and character of the room. Charges for board and rent are payable in two equal instalments, one on taking possession of the room and one in February. These payments cover the period from the Monday before the opening of the college in September (September 23, 1907), until the Saturday after the close of the college in June (June 13, 1908).

Full information in regard to the situation and cost of rooms, the advance deposit, the charge for electric light and the residence scholarships is published in a separate pamphlet, to be had on application to the Secretary of Barnard College, New York, N. Y.

The post-office address for residents is Brooks Hall, 607 West 116th Street, New York, N. Y.

THE PROGRAM OF STUDIES

Upon completion of a curriculum arranged on one of the plans to be described below, the student is recommended by the Faculty of Barnard College for the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science.

The principles of the program of studies are as follows:

1. The requirement for graduation is 124 points, the term "point" signifying the satisfactory completion of work requiring attendance one hour a week for one half-year.

2. Studies are either "prescribed," i. e., obligatory upon all candidates for a degree; or "elective," i. e., to be taken (though with certain restrictions) at the pleasure of the student.

3. Prescribed studies, with the exception of Economics A, must be taken as far as practicable during the first two years of residence; and subjects taken in college which are continuations of subjects offered at entrance must be taken as far as possible in the first year.

4. Other courses than those specified under each half-year may be taken by students qualified to pursue them with advantage, but in every case only with the consent of the Dean.

5. No combination of courses amounting to less than 12 or more than 16 points may be made in any half-year without the consent of the Dean.

6. No credit will be given for a one-hour course, unless it is taken in connection with and as a supplement to a cognate course of at least the same value.

7. No more than four hours of work, exclusive of laboratory work, may be taken on the same day.

8. At least 18 points, exclusive of prescribed work, must be made under some one department before graduation.

9. Admission to courses depends strictly upon completion of the prerequisites as stated for each course separately. Where no prerequisite is stated the course may be taken and counted for a degree by any student of the College.

10. To be recommended for a degree, a student must have made at least 84 points in actual college residence, and of these at least 24 in Barnard College. (The Faculty has power to suspend this rule in individual cases; but a Statute of the University forbids the granting of a degree to any person who has not been a member of the University for a full academic year, i. e., two half-years.)

11. All requirements for a degree must be fulfilled by the candidate within six years from the time of her first matriculation as a freshman in college, whether at Barnard or elsewhere; within four and a half years from similar matriculation as a sophomore; within three years from similar matriculation as a junior; and within one and a half years from matriculation as a senior. If the candidate fails to satisfy the requirements within the time as here specified, she shall lose credit for all the points gained by her toward the degree, unless, in individual cases properly attested, the Faculty shall otherwise direct.

12. No extension courses, taken either at Columbia or elsewhere, may be credited toward a degree.

13. Change of electives will be allowed by the Dean, for reasons of weight stated to her in writing, during but not later than the first two weeks of each half-year.

Before final choice of elective studies, all students should consult the Dean, and, in case of any doubt, the instructors in charge of particular courses as well. Electives must be chosen on some consistent plan, not merely at random. Conflicts between courses falling at the same hours are to be avoided by careful study of the Scheme of Attendance (see pp. 86-89) which has been drawn up with a view to making possible for every one the selection of a reasonable number of harmonious elective courses that shall not conflict in hours with each other or with prescribed courses. It often happens that some of the courses of one department form valuable supplements to certain courses of another, so that combinations of work under two or more departments are very desirable. In all such cases the best selections can be made only after consultation with officers of one or more of the departments concerned. This applies particularly to the regulation that 18 points, exclusive of prescribed work, must be made in some one department.

In regard to the choice of elective courses a student should seek the advice of the professor in charge of her prospective major subject in Teachers College.

After satisfactory completion of 64 points of work in Barnard College, including the courses listed above, a student may transfer, without examination, to the professional curriculum of Teachers College and become a candidate for a Teachers College diploma and the degree of Bachelor of Science in Education.

In consequence of the agreement on the part of Barnard College to provide the collegiate courses required by Teachers College for admission to its professional curriculum, Teachers College has withdrawn its collegiate curriculum.

IV OPTIONS IN THE PROFESSIONAL SCHOOLS FOR CANDIDATES FOR A BARNARD COLLEGE DEGREE

A student may plan her work in such a way as to earn a professional diploma from Teachers College at the same time as her academic degree from Barnard College. After completing in Barnard College 94 points of work, including all courses prescribed for one of the bachelor's degrees of Barnard College and Education A, she may transfer, with the permission of the Dean of Barnard College and the Dean of Teachers College, to Teachers College at the end of her junior year and become a candidate also for the bachelor's diploma in teaching. A student so transferred will be recommended for her prospective degree by the Faculty of Barnard College, on its receipt of a statement from the Faculty of Teachers College of her satisfactory completion of the requirements for a bachelor's diploma.

For full details regarding the major subjects in teaching, their requirements and prerequisites in collegiate work, and the most advantageous division of work in education, the student is referred to the current announcement of Teachers College.

GENERAL REGULATIONS REGARDING EXAMINATIONS IN COURSE, CREDIT, AND ADVANCEMENT

Two examinations are held every year, one in January and the other in May. These are, and they are the only, stated examinations. In 1908 the mid-year examinations begin on Wednesday, January 22; the final examinations for candidates for graduation on Monday, May 11, and for all other students on Thursday, May 28.

All students, except seniors and juniors, who shall have been absent from more than one-tenth of the exercises in any course during a single half-year, shall not be entitled to attend the stated examination in that course. Each instance of tardiness shall be counted as half an absence.

Should a student not exceed the limit of absence allowed, no explanation of any of her absences is required; should a sophomore, a freshman, or a special student exceed the limit allowed in any course, she shall be debarred from the stated examination in that course, and may attend it only by consent of the Dean, given after written explanation to her of every absence.

Every student, except a senior or a junior, is expected and required to keep an account of her absences, and any satisfactory explanation of them must be from records made at the times of their occurrence, and for dates noted by the student herself and not obtained by her from the instructor in charge.

Delinquent examinations, as defined in a subsequent paragraph, and examinations held by special permission of the Dean are special examinations.

The fee for a special examination is $5, which must be paid by the student before being admitted to the examination. If a student has special examinations in more than one subject granted her under one permit from the Dean, a single fee of $5 shall cover them all.

Delinquent

Delinquent examinations, to enable deficient and debarred students of all classes to make good their deficiencies, are held within the two weeks immediately preceding the opening of the College in the fall; and in addition, for members of the senior class only, during the first week in May.

Except as provided for in the foregoing paragraph on delinquent examinations, a student found deficient at a stated examination will not be allowed a special examination in that subject.

Except as provided for in the paragraph on delinquent examinations, a student absent from a stated examination in any subject will be allowed a special examination in that subject only when the absence was due to unavoidable circumstances. In that case the Dean may, on proper written certification to her of the circumstances, grant a special examination.

At the close of every half-year, and after the stated examination has been held, each officer of instruction shall report to the Dean a list of all the students in his several courses, classifying them in five grades, namely, A, B, C, D, F, according as their work in the course has been excellent, good, fair, poor, or a failure.

Credit

A student who receives a mark of F in any prescribed course must repeat that course. A student who receives a mark of F in any course not prescribed may present herself for re-examination at the time fixed for the delinquent examinations; on passing such examination she shall receive only a mark of D. In either case, however, if the mark of F was given by reason of absence from examination resulting from illness or other unavoidable cause, she may be examined by permission of the Dean and marked as though she had attended the regular examination.

Only one-fifth (24 points in all) of the work credited toward the degree may be of a grade of D. Promotions under this provision may take place only when four-fifths of the requisite number of points for advancement are above the grade of D. Of several courses in which a student is marked D she may choose the ones to be counted. In all cases the requirements as to prerequisites must be completed before the beginning of the academic year.

At the end of every half-year, when all the reports are filed in the Registrar's Office, additional credit for high standing is given as follows:

Additional Credit for High Standing      The mark A in courses aggregating six points of work (no course to be counted twice) entitles the student to one point of extra credit, provided she has not fallen below the mark B in any of the courses pursued by her during the half-year.

Any student who is credited with 94 points (including all prescribed work) may receive one point of extra credit for each of two courses chosen from among those offered by any single department as counting toward a higher degree,<sup>1</sup> provided the quality of her work in such course be tested by an essay for which a mark of A or B is given, in addition to the stated examinations. No student may receive more than one point of extra credit in one half-year under the terms of this rule.

No student may be advanced from the freshman to the sophomore class until she shall (a) have satisfied all the requirements for entrance, and (b) have not less than 20 points to her credit.

Advancement      No student may be advanced from the sophomore to the junior class until she shall have not less than 52 points to her credit.

No student may be advanced from the junior to the senior class until she shall have accomplished all the studies of the course specifically required in the first three years, and have not less than 94 points to her credit.

A student dropped from the roll of her class will not be permitted to attend any of the exercises of the said class without the consent of the Dean, given for reasons of weight; but she may enter the next succeeding class and pursue the course or courses in which her deficiency exists, or, in case of elective courses and with the consent of the Dean, other course or courses equivalent thereto in time, and present herself for examination in such course or courses with that class. No student dropped from the roll of her class under the provisions of this section will be accepted as a special student.

Should a student fail of advancement in two successive years, she shall be dropped from the roll of the college, unless, for reasons of weight, the Dean shall otherwise determine. No student dropped from the roll of the College under the provisions of this section will be accepted as a special student.

<sup>1</sup>I. e., Master of Arts or Doctor of Philosophy. Such courses are those offered under the Faculty of Political Science, the Faculty of Philosophy, or the Faculty of Pure Science primarily for graduate students, but open also to advanced undergraduates.

SCHOLARSHIPS

There are altogether forty-one scholarships and three special funds for the aid of needy and deserving students. The value of each of these scholarships, unless otherwise stated, is $150 annually, which sum is applicable to the fees of the year. Under certain circumstances those scholarships known as Student Scholarships may be divided between two applicants.

The scholarships are of two sorts, competitive and non-competitive. The former are awarded for excellence in entrance examinations on the nomination of the Committee on Admissions. The latter are awarded by the Committee of the Trustees on Scholarships, on the nomination of the corresponding Committee of the Faculty to worthy students who have passed at least one year in college. They are held, unless otherwise stated, for one year only.

Two scholarships may not be held by the same person. Should two scholarships be assigned to the same student in one year, she must at once make choice as to which she will retain. If a student fail to maintain a grade of at least C in all courses which she pursues, or if she commit a breach of good order, she shall forfeit her scholarship and, in the case of non-competitive scholarships, shall be ineligible for re-election the following year. Complete entrance examinations in all subjects taken in January may be considered together with those of the following June in awarding competitive scholarships.

Before the first of April of each year all applications for non-competitive scholarships, accompanied with full credentials, must be filed at the Dean's office upon special blanks to be obtained there. Candidates for the competitive scholarships to be awarded on the basis of the June examinations should, in their application to the Secretary of the College Entrance Examination Board (see p. 18), mention the Barnard College scholarships for which they are competing.

COMPETITIVE SCHOLARSHIPS

These, subject to the foregoing general regulations for scholarships, are as follows:

1. Open to all Students:

- Trustees' Competitive Scholarship..... 1
Awarded annually by the Board of Trustees to the student who, in June, passes the best complete entrance examination in all subjects. It may be held for one year only.

The annual income from $4,000 is awarded on the merits of the entrance examinations to a student who, after careful investigation, is found to have no relative able to assist her financially. It may be held for the entire college course.

2. Open to Particular Students:

Brooklyn Scholarships..... 12

They are open to students who have received their training in either the public or the private schools of Brooklyn, N. Y., and are residents of that city. Three of these scholarships will be awarded annually to qualified competitors who pass in June, without conditions, the best complete entrance examinations in all subjects. They may be held for the entire college course, but a holder, while retaining the title "Brooklyn Scholar," may transfer the income to any properly qualified candidate from Brooklyn without having her action made a matter of public record.

Lucille Pulitzer Scholarships..... 3

Founded by Mr. Joseph Pulitzer in memory of his daughter, Lucille Pulitzer. They are awarded to undergraduate students entering the College from the city of New York who are found to have passed excellent entrance examinations and to be worthy of financial aid. They may be held for the first three years of the college course only.

The first, (a) founded in 1899, is the income of $10,000, and will be awarded in 1909, 1912, and corresponding years. The second and third, given in 1903, represent each one half the income of $15,000; (b) will be awarded in 1907 and 1910, (c) in 1908 and 1911, and corresponding years.

These, subject to the general regulations for scholarships, are as follows:

1. Open to all Students:

DEPARTMENTAL STATEMENTS

The following general regulations apply to all courses:

When an announced course has not been applied for by at least three candidates for a degree, the instructor may withdraw it.

Where the hours for laboratory work are not given either in the departmental statement or in the scheme of attendance, they must be arranged after consultation with the officer in charge of the course.

When courses are divided into sections, assignment is by alphabetical order; but for reasons of weight students may be transferred from the assigned section by the Dean.

Prescribed courses are designated by capital letters. Elective courses are designated by numbers, odd numbers for the first half-year courses and even numbers for the second half-year courses. A compound course is therefore designated by an odd number and the succeeding even number. The numbers from 1 to 99 inclusive are given to courses open only to undergraduates; the numbers from 101 to 199 inclusive are given to courses open to both undergraduates and graduates; the lower numbers in each case being used for the introductory courses.

In the statement of each course the prerequisites are indicated, except that the equivalent of the first half of a hyphenated course (e. g., Anthropology 1-2) is always assumed to be a prerequisite for admission to the second half. When no department is named it is to be assumed that the reference is to a numbered course in the same department.

Courses marked with an asterisk (*) are given at Columbia University and, with the exception of courses in Music, are open only to seniors. Courses marked with a dagger (†) are given at Teachers College.

For more detailed information in regard to topics, text-books, or methods, in any particular course, students are referred to the instructors.

LATIN

For the first two years especially the three-hour courses will be mainly but not wholly linguistic, the two-hour courses mainly literary in character. The linguistic courses are intended specifically for those who purpose to teach Latin; such students should also give all possible time to the courses in prose composition. The literary courses are intended for those who study Latin in the interests of general culture rather than for professional reasons. Those who purpose to be teachers cannot, however, afford wholly to neglect the literary courses, nor, on the other hand, can those whose interests are mainly literary secure the best results without careful linguistic study.

Accordingly, that all students may be able to make use of the advantages offered in Greek and Latin, they will be allowed at the beginning of their sophomore and junior years, with the consent of the Dean and the Head of the Department, to elect courses of the earlier years not yet counted toward the degree. In all such cases the student will be required to do some extra work prescribed by the instructor in charge of the course.
